DESCRIPTIVE LIST

HINTS ON PLANTING

First—Be sure that roots of trees and plants are kept moist and well covered from time of leaving nursery until planted.

Second—Dig holes larger and deeper than necessary to receive roots in their natural position without bending. Place tree in center of hole and fill with fine top soil, working same well among the roots. When about two-thirds filled with soil, fill hole with water and when water has settled finish filling with soil; firm soil gently with the foot and rake surface level.

Third—When through planting, if one-year-old trees, cut back to a uniform height of about thirty inches from the ground. Side limbs, if any, should be cut close to body of tree. Peach trees should have side limbs cut to within one inch of body of tree. If two-year-old trees, there will be from three to six branches. Cut out all but three or four limbs suitable to form a well balanced top, and cut each side limb back to four or five inches from body of tree, leaving leader or center limb twenty to twenty-four inches long.

Fourth—If weather is warm and dry, water thoroughly every six or eight days. Soil should be stirred with a hoe, as soon as dry enough to work mellow, after each watering.

Fifth—If trees are dry and shriveled when received, bury in moist soil for five or six days. If frozen, do not open box or bale, but bury until frost is drawn out.

Sixth—Never allow manure to come in contact with roots of newly planted trees or shrubs, but if put on top of ground after planting it is of benefit as a mulch.

Seventh—Never handle trees in frosty or windy weather. Set trees an inch or two deeper than they stood in nursery.

REMARKS

Owing to the fact that agents of several outside nurseries are continually circulating the report that we have retired from the nursery business, we beg to state that we are still growing and selling nursery stock at the same stand—and on the same principles.

ORDER EARLY—As it is impossible to forecast the demand for nursery stock, some varieties are always sold up before the end of the season. There has also, during the past few years, been a shortage in most lines—with consequent high prices—and there is still a shortage in some lines, especially ornamentals. For these reasons we advise the placing of orders early, while there is a full stock from which to make your selection. Order by mail or in person if possible, as telephone orders are very often the cause of errors.

DELIVERY SEASON usually from March 15th to May 1st. Seasons vary so much, however, we must be governed by prevailing weather conditions.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Read carefully before ordering.

TERMS CASH with order of before delivery, except by special arrangement.

LOCAL DELIVERY—No charge for delivery to any part of the city on orders of $5.00 or more, if cash IN FULL accompanies order; otherwise a charge of 50 cents for each delivery. A deposit of 20 per cent required on all c. o. d. orders.

PRICES—We aim to make our prices the lowest consistent with dependable stock and prices named are for FIRST GRADE STOCK. We have other grades in some varieties; prices quoted on application. Also glad to quote prices on larger quantities. Fifty or more trees at hundred rates.

FREE FREIGHT AND PACKING—Orders of $10.00 or more, at single rate quoted accompanied with cash in full, will be delivered to your nearest railroad station CHARGES PREPAID. This includes all stock listed except Shade, Ornamental and Evergreen trees.

THIS LIST CANCELS all previous quotations and is subject to change without notice except on orders already booked.

GUARANTEE—If nursery stock etc., proves untrue to description under which it was sold, we hold ourselves in readiness on proper proof, to replace all such nursery stock, etc., that may prove otherwise, or refund the amount paid for same, but we shall in no case be liable for any sum greater than the amount originally received for said nursery stock.

CLAIMS—Human help is not infallible and errors occur in all lines of business. Your satisfaction is our success, however, and to insure proper adjustment, all claims for errors, shortage or anything else pertaining to your order must be made promptly after receipt of goods.

Quince-Orange—Fruit large, round; color bright yellow; excellent flavor.

Price, 3 to 4 feet, 75 cents each.

EVERGREENS.

Prices for trees balled and burlaped.

Many people hesitate to plant evergreens, under the impression that they are hard to grow. Such is not the case if the trees are handled properly in transplanting and given a little care afterwards.

The varieties listed below are all grown in our own nurseries and have been two or three times transplanted.

In transplanting, Evergreen trees are taken up with a ball of soil on the roots, which is securely covered with burlap. In planting, dig a hole where tree is to stand, place tree in hole just as received from the nursery, cut the string that holds the burlap in place and, if soil is unbroken, lift tree gently and remove all burlap. If soil is broken and likely to fall away from the roots, do not attempt to remove the burlap, but lay it out smooth underneath the tree. Fill in carefully with fine moist soil, which should be made firm enough by tramping to prevent roots being moved by the tree swaying in the wind.

Juniper Virg. (Red Cedar)—Narrow, pyramidal habit; dark green to reddish foliage. In season covered with bright blue and silver berries.

Price, 2 to 3 feet, $2.50 to $3.50 each.

Juniper, Silver—Beautiful silvery blue color; narrow, compact and symmetrical. Berries blue and silver colored.

Price, 18 to 24 inches, $3.00 to $4.00 each.

Arbor Vitae, Pyramidal—Of remarkable erect growth, rich, dark green foliage. It is of the same habit as the Irish Juniper, and is decidedly more valuable for its superior hardiness.

Price, 1 to 2 feet, $3.00 each.

Arbor Vitae, Globe—The finest of the globular types, forming a compact and perfect globe without pruning. Seldom exceeds 3 to 3½ feet in diameter at maturity. Beautiful dark green foliage; excellent for foundation planting and for tubbing.

Price, 12 by 12 inches, $4.00 each.

Spruce, Black Hill—Hardest of all spruces. Foliage varies from green to bluish tint, very compact and bushy. Small specimens only.

Price, 12 to 15 inches, $2.00 each.

Japanese Spurge—An evergreen ground cover, with thick glossy green foliage. Excellent for edging or underplanting, and does well in the shade where grass will not grow. Six to eight inches in height and spreads over the ground.

Price, 50 cents each, $3.50 per 10.

Myrtle—A blue flowering, trailing evergreen ground cover. Beautiful glossy, dark green leaves.

Price, 15 cents each, $10.00 per 100.
